Anxiety is felt in New York that France may not arrive in time for the reception.

In the senior hockey series in Winnipeg the Victorians won by three goals to one.

—W. Macdonald has returned home after a tour through Eastern Canada. Mr. Macdonald visited Toronto, Montreal and other points. During his stay in Montreal, he was surprised to hear so much about Alberta and the Edmonton country. Mr. Macdonald says if anyone would like to learn something of the importance and of the great advantages possessed by this part of Alberta, it is only necessary to take a seat in any of the trains, say nothing, make a short stay and leave well posted on all points. In fact the people east think as much of the country as we do ourselves.

—Regina West: The regular train to the Prince Albert branch, which leaves Regina every Monday and Thursday, will in future only carry passengers, baggage, express and mail. A freight train will leave here every Tuesday to dispense the freight along the line. The passenger train will now be able to run regularly on time.

—Railway work has made rapid progress on the north side of the river this week. The ground is deeply frozen, but dynamite blasts break up the surface and the weather admits of the unfrozen material underneath being handled as easily as in summer. Apparently the work on this side will be completed in another week or two at most.

—C. B. Bullock, now on trial, charged with killing Leon Sainton, is a dark complexioned man, above the average height. He has a mild, though somewhat restless, expression, a very prominent forehead, a light jaw and receding chin. The accused watches the evidence very closely.

LOCAL.

BRITISH COLUMBIA POLITICS

Vancouver, P. C., Feb. 7.—At the liberal convention to-day party lines were decided upon, and Joseph Martin was elected leader. The following executive was elected: R. M. Maxwell, president, confirmed; vice-president, Stuart Henderson, Yale-Cariboo; second vice-president, Richard Hall, Victoria; third vice-president, J. C.
Brown, Westminster; fourth vice-president, S. S. Taylor, Yale-Cariboo.
A special committee appointed reported that the executive should consist of four from Yale-Cariboo, three from Vancouver Island, three from Burrard and Westminster, together with the officers, making seventeen altogether.

These were selected as follows: Burrard and Westminster—W. J.
McMillan, Vancouver; John Oliver, M.
P. I., Delta, and James Stables, M.
P. E., Atlin.

Victoria and Vancouver Island—J.
Jardine, Victoria; A. Urquhart, Co-max, and J. F. Hiescoe, Alberni.

Yale-Cariboo—H. G. Muller, Vernon; Dr. Sinclair, Rossland; A. E.
Green, Golden, and A. B. Dockstadter, Sandon.

T. S. Baxter's appointment as secretary was confirmed, and W. Sloan, Nanaimo, was elected treasurer. The old executive was entirely repudiated and is now defunct.

Party lines in provincial politics were declared for, and Joseph Martin in a speech indicated that at the next session of the local house he would support the government, as although not wholly liberal, if it were defeated the conservatives would secure reins of power. John Oliver, Victoria, endorsed Mr. Martin's remarks, which are taken by some to indicate that Dumas's government will not only be able to pull through next session, but will be considerably strengthened.

Party Platform.

The platform which was adopted and on which Mr. Martin will appeal to the people, is as follows:

1. Immediate redistribution of constituencies of the province on the basis of population.

2. Adopting the principle of government ownership of all public utilities.

3. Payment of bonuses to railways, etc., if a bonus is necessary at all, in cash, not in land, the government to have control of the rates.

4. The immediate construction of the Coast-Kootenay railway, of a railway from Nanaimo to the east coast of Vancouver Island and several other needed lines.

5. The enactment of accurate log scaling regulations and their enforcement by government inspectors.

Seven, eight and nine suggested action for general improvement of agricultural and mining industries.

10.—Suggests that taxation should be borne by the privileged rather than by the industrial community, and opposes any increase of provincial debt except for public works, properly chargeable to capital.

11.—Opposes the alienation of any public domain land to actual settlers or bonafide industries and none to speculators.

12.—Opposes any radical change in the present mining laws without full notice being given before hand to all parties interested.

The party lines challenge thrown down by the liberal convention has been met by the junior conservative club, which, at the evening's meeting passed a resolution re-affirming its allegiance to party lines and urging all conservative organizations throughout the province to redouble their efforts to increase their membership and strengthen their organization on these lines.

MANITOBA MARKETS

Commercial, Feb. 8.

The market for Manitoba wheat has been stagnant. Owing to the congestion caused by the transportation situation there is a great restriction to trade. The quality of wheat has remained practically stationary over the week. In store Fort William has sold up to 70c for 1 northern in elevator D, and in the elevators 69 1/2-1 northern, and 66 1/2-2 northern have been values February delivery. The difference is caused principally by the question of fire insurance, 1 hard in store Fort William is not worth over 72 1/2c. In store Canadian Northern elevator, Fort Arthur, is same value as Fort William. In store Duluth is now in good request at 1-2c over Fort William prices. May delivery in store Fort William is worth 74c 1 northern, 70 1/2-2 northern.

Country markets.—The country wheat market is very quiet owing to lack of elevator accommodation.
Where wheat is being bought, price runs from 54 to 60c per bushel.

Oats.—Receipts of carlots are fairly liberal most of the oats being from Northern Alberta. The quality of these oats is better than most of the Manitoba offerings and accordingly they get the preference. Recent offerings of Manitoba oats have been of very poor quality and feed merchants are indifferent about buying them. The belief is quite prevalent though that good oats are to be had in Manitoba if the roads were only in condition to permit of easy marketing. Farmers will soon begin to enquire for good oats. In fact some are already doing so. The market is easier to-day than it was a week ago.

We quote: Carlots of No. 1 white on frank or cash basis are quoted at 42c per bushel; No. 2 white, 38 to 40c per bushel; feed oats, 38c. No. 1 Alberta oats are worth 38c Fort William, and 35c, 36c, 37c, 38c.

Prices being paid to farmers at country points for No. 2 white oats range around 30 to 31c. Brandon rate of freight. Struck out here are worth 32 to 34c per bushel.

Barley.—Barreys are paying from 38 to 40c per bushel for malting grades on track basis and feed merchants 33 to 36c either on track or on the street.

LESSER SLAVE LAKE

Building operations are brisk. The chapel fathers have built a church 70x10 feet, for use as a cathedral.
Bishop Grouard, the head of the newly erected diocese of Athabasca, will visit Lesser Slave Lake his headquarters. Preparations are now being made for the building of a palace.
The dimensions are 60x10 feet. The establishment, here consists of 2 bishops, 3 fathers, 5 lay brothers and 10 workmen.

The sisters of Providence number 11.
They have a fine convent and take care of the 125 native children who are clothed, fed and instructed in French and English.

Connected with this establishment there is also a saw and grain mill.
The winter, throughout, has been delightful and the general health good.

STEAMER FOR PEACE RIVER

Rev. Father Hueson, O. M. I., arrived on Sunday from Lesser Slave Lake.
He will remain here until the arrival of the steamboats and machinery now on the way here. The Peterborough Canoe company have built two boats for the Roman Catholic diocese of Athabasca. The larger one of the two is intended for use on the Peace and the other will be run between Hudson's Hope and the Chute below Fort Vermilion, a distance of about 125 miles. The Peterborough, entirely of oak, has a total length of 60 feet, with a beam of 11 feet, is fitted with modern marine engines and guaranteed to steam the fastest current. The smaller craft is a steam launch 29 feet in length. The launch will be brought in already fitted, while the larger boat will be shipped in sections. The former will run on Lesser Slave lake and will be used as a tug.

WESTASKIWIN

Times, Feb. 6.
Large numbers of delegates are arriving daily from the States to look over the country.

Mrs. F. W. Huckle returned on Wednesday from her trip with the Western Canada Press Association.
Mr. Thos. Torsen and family returned on Tuesday's train from Edmonton where some time has been spent as the guests of friends.

The bishop, from Calgary, was in the city and conducted service in the Episcopal church last Sunday.
Both morning and evening. (The successor to Rev. Andrus will likely arrive about Easter.)

W. P. Martin went to Leduc this week, where he will spend some time visiting friends. His many friends are pleased to see him moving around and living again, after his serious accident last summer.

R. C. Edwards, who has been residing at Bitter Lake for the summer, left on Thursday for High River, where he will be the guest of Jerry Boyce.

There was considerable activity in the real estate business during the past week.

Penron Park item: Ceylas Nelson has sold his half section of Hudson's Bay land to Frank Fee. This is a fine half section and well worth the consideration, which was $6 per acre.

Millet items:

Mr. Ayers has opened a blacksmith shop three miles west of the village.

The appearance of Millet has been improved by the erection of a new station by the C. P. R.

The Rev. Mr. Kruger, who preceded Mr. Fild on this mission, was seriously hurt about two weeks ago by falling off a load of straw. We are pleased to announce that he is convalescing nicely under the care of Dr.
Harrison, of Edmonton.

A serious loss fell upon the people of this district last week when their beautiful school house was burned to the ground. The school had just began a couple of weeks under the charge of Miss Short. The trustees have secured the vacant building belonging to Mr. Wright and moved it onto the town site where it will be used till next spring as a school.

Frank Lucas was elected president of the Westaskiwin agricultural society at the recent annual meeting.

DEWET IS STILL AT LARGE

London, Feb. 9.—From Wolvebark, Lord Kitchener has to-day telegraphed a long description of a combined movement of numerous British columns with the object of securing General DeWet.

Lord Kitchener says the advance began the night of Feb. 6, the whole force moving in various directions and forming a continuous line of mounted men on the west bank of the Lobengwey river from Frankfort as far south as Fannie's Home and thence to Kaffirpoort. The line then advanced to the west, and the following night the British entrenched with their outposts fifty yards apart. They held the line from Holland on the Heilbron-Frankfort block houses line to Dornkloof, on the Kroonstad-Lindley block house line, while the columns were also working in advance of the block house lines to prevent DeWet's crossing.

The advance was continued Feb. 6 and DeWet was within the enclosure, but realizing his position, he ordered his men to disperse and seek safety during the night. DeWet himself, with some men and a number of cattle made for the Kroonstad-Lindley block house line and at 1 o'clock the morning, when it was very dark, by rushing his cattle into the fence, broke his way through the line, mixing up with the cattle and losing three men killed.

Many reports were made to break through the line on the night of Feb.
7, reports Lord Kitchener, the line of outposts being attacked at various places throughout the night. But very few escaped, and ten head Boers were picked up in the morning near Heilbron.

It did not get exact details of the Boer casualties continues "Lord Kitchener, "but as far as I have ascertained they consist of 283 in killed, wounded and prisoners, as well as about 700 in horses, and many cattle. Our casualties were only ten.

IMPORTANT RANCH SALE

Calgary, N. W. T., Feb. 5.—It is now definitely learned that Bar "U" ranch, formerly owned by the Northwest Cattle Company has been purchased by George Lane, of Calgary, and Messrs. Gordon, Ironsides & Faire. The deal involved in cattle horses, land and improvements over $200,000. The ranch is finely situated and is one of the largest and most complete in Alberta.

FOUND DEAD.

The body of A. Logan was found in Brunelle & Wood's stables at an early hour Tuesday morning by Const. Dean.
Dr. Braithwaite, coroner, was at once notified and examined the body. He pronounced the cause of death heart failure, and did not consider an inquest necessary. The body was removed to the morgue of the public hospital, and the relatives of deceased living nearest to town were notified. The body was removed on Wednesday to the late home of the deceased at Turnip lake.

Deceased was a native of Manitoba, but has lived here for over twenty years past. Mrs. Logan is a daughter of the late A. McGillivray, of the H.
B. Co. service. He was a brother of R. Logan, of Beaver lake, and of Logan, of Egg lake, north of St. Albert.

THE WAR.

Pretoria, Feb. 8.—A British force under Col. Kiel, consisting of Demont's horse and batteries K. F. M. of the Royal Horse artillery, acting as mounted infantry, made a three-days' trek and captured 80 horses, 1,000 sheep and 30 head of good cattle. They took one prisoner. The horse artillery rifles have picked up their new work quickly and well.

On Sunday, under cover of darkness and during a heavy rain storm, the Boers attacked a blockhouse on Frankfort road, but were repulsed.
They seem to have been the capture of ten supply wagons, which were resting at Blackfell. The Boers have made attempts to cross the line of blockhouses every night lately.
They avoid causing alarm by pulling up posts and flattening the fence, instead of cutting the wires.

Another considerable British success is reported. On Wednesday night, Major Leader, of the Fifth Dragoon Guards, went out with mounted troops from columns of Col.
Kekel and his force, with object of attacking General Delarey's force, which was said to be near Klerksdorp. On the way the Boer picket was surprised and Major Leader, on learning his plans and went to the latters place. Albert's laager was taken completely by surprise before dawn. Under fire of the pom-poms and machine guns, the Boer burgers put up a smart fight but failed to withstand the charge of mounted men, particularly the Scottish Horse, who charged gallantly right home. The result was severe. Boers killed and 131, including Commandant Albert, made prisoners. The British loss was only a few wounded.

It has been decided to deport General Ben Viljoen, Boer commander, who was captured about ten days ago.

Brussels, Feb. 8.—Utrecht correspondent of Petit Blue states in an interview, Leyds, diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, said: "We intend, as quickly as possible, to inform Boer leaders in South Africa of exact significance of Anglo-Dutch correspondence, and everything connected with it.
We have received very recent information from South Africa, which is very reassuring. War will go on for ten years if necessary."

SURPLUS OF SIX MILLIONS

THE KING VS. BULLOCK.

Lewis Mott, sworn; Am a constable in the N. W. M. P., was stationed at Wetaskiwin in August last. Executed a search warrant in company with Sergt. Hetherington and examined a body in the Wetaskiwin church yard. Returned to the Bullock house on the following Monday. Under the warrant I found a comb took it to Wetaskiwin and handed it to Sergt. Hetherington. Comb was made of some kind of metal and had words engraved thereon. The comb produced in the same case. Was present at the post mortem.

Cross examined by H. H. Robertson: The comb was not concealed, it was lying on a shelf. There is only one room in the lower part of the house. Did not go up stairs. E. K. Bullock's house is a small house about 15 by 20 feet.

John W. Lyons, sworn: Live 10 miles east of Ponoka on the trail from Ponoka to Asker. Am an American. Came from Nebraska. Know a man named Bullock who lives near Asker. Know him by name at Wood River, Nebraska. Know the prisoner. Knew him at Wood river. He was then approaching manhood. Saw him at my place on the last of April, on a Monday morning about 7 o'clock. He was with his father. Saw them in front of my granary. They drove up. Knew the man. Bullock was living in this country. The old gentleman remained in the rig. They came on business. Spoke to the prisoner. The man said, "You do not remember my son Bud."

Answered I had a slight remembrance of him. The father introduced him as "my son Bud." Said he was going to Ponoka to leave the country. Said he was working in a railroad tunnel in Wyoming. Mentioned the name of the place. Said the place was about 80 miles from Ogden, Utah. Said he was foolish in coming to this country leaving a good job behind him. Said he was going to Jacksonville, E. C. Know Fred, Frank, Harry, Ray and Blanche Bullock, also the mother, all of whom live in this country. Blanche resembles the one on the trail. I was able to distinguish one from the other. Next saw Mr. Bullock on his return from town that day. Was out in my field and spoke to him. I walked over and spoke to him. Saw a musical instrument in the wagon. It was an autoharp on zither. It resembles the one on the table. My wife was there. She was introduced to the prisoner. My wife made the remark that when he drove up the thought he was Blanche Bullock. Prisoner replied he was a fatter man. The watch produced was in my possession. Saw it in my wife's hand. She was about 50 feet from the house and coming toward me. He was in the direction as if coming from the granary. Looked for marks on it and found none. Hung up for some time. Then gave it to my wife for a plaything. Afterwards detected an initial (pointed out). First time I went into Ponoka took it with me and left it with Mr. Algar. Found the watch about the end of May. In the best of my opinion it was after Bullock and his son were at my place. Know Thomas McCue. He has been about my place, to my knowledge. Know William De Wyde. He was at my place in May before this watch was found.

Cross examined, by H. H. Robertson: Saw the Bullocks coming from some distance, when they brought the grain to my place. No person claimed the watch. There is a branch trail, used by persons travelling light, running close to my granary. Several passed over the trail between the time the watch was delivered and the time my wife handed me the watch. Do not know where Blanche Bullock is now. The marks on the watch are rather plain. It was wound up and would not run. Took it to Ponoka to have it sent to Sergt. Hetherington. Said at the preliminary trial that it was the custom of the prisoner to visit his friends, coming one day and leaving the next. Witness did not appear excited or in a hurry to get out of Ponoka. The day they came to my place they remained there or fifteen minutes.

William De Wyde, sworn: Live at Ponoka. Know the watch. McCue bought a watch from him last spring. An open faced silver watch. Had it in my possession for a week or two. Lost it somewhere over the road going to Battle Lake. On that occasion I stopped at John Lyons's and had dinner. Thought the watch at Ponoka. McCue had been drinking when I bought it. Gave it a dollar for it. The watch was in going order when I lost it. Thought I lost it near Lyons's. I got stuck there with a load of potatoes. Cannot say if the watch produced is the one I lost. There were two hands on the watch I lost. Do not think that is the watch I lost. Cross examined by Mr. Brown: Know Mr. Algar the J. P. I said I thought it was mine. When I saw it I did not think it was mine. When the initials were shown me I felt more sure it was not mine. Did not think my watch looked so good. Got it for a dollar. McCue had been drinking when I bought it. I was sober.

Thomas McCue, sworn: Live at MorningSide; Know Wm. De Wyde. Sold him a watch. Had it a few days only. Do not know where I got it. Was at the Royal Hotel at Ponoka where I first became aware I had the watch. Would not undertake to say I could identify the watch. Wake up after a spree and found I had a watch. Cross examined, by Mr. Brown: Know Mr. Algar the J. P. I said I thought it was mine. When I saw it I did not think it was mine. When the initials were shown me I felt more sure it was not mine. Did not think my watch looked so good. Got it for a dollar. McCue had been drinking when I bought it. I was sober.

Lorne Dodd, sworn: Live at Ponoka. Saw the prisoner at the Royal Hotel on a Monday night. Met the prisoner at the bar of the hotel with another man. The man was small. Came back and had two or three drinks. I set up the drinks first. The prisoner then set up the drinks. Think he paid with silver. Said he was from the States. Showed me some photographs. Think I would recognize them. Remember all those shown except one. Prisoner said something about having been at work at the different places represented in the photographs. He left the following morning for the south. Think he treated about four times. Know Thomas McCue. Did not see him around the hotel that night. Said his father had driven him in. Cannot recall the name he gave. Next saw him coming north in company with Sergeant Hetherington. He took away an old telescope valve and a new one.

Cross examined, by H. H. Robertson: Know it was on a Monday because the grain came in on that day. Prisoner treated three or four times. Each time the cost was forty cents. Prisoner behaved like an ordinary man. Camille Miquelon, sworn: Live at Ponoka. Was manager of the hotel there. Saw the prisoner at the Royal Hotel. He came to the house, on the 29th, April, with his father. The pig from Hotel register was taken at time of preliminary. The names E. K. Bullock and C. B. Bullock were written by either the son or the father. The name McHugh is my own writing. He is a witness here. Generally wrote McCue's name when he came to the house. Do not remember if he was there that day but conclude he was, by referring to the register. Was attending bar that night. The prisoner was there that night. He spent a few dollars. Was not much under the influence of liquor. Remember his showing some pictures. Pictures of logs loaded on sleighs. Think I would recognize the pictures. Think I recognize the pictures shown. He had one grip maybe two. Do not remember having seen him before.

At the preliminary stated I could not remember any views except photos of lumber camps. Cannot say if the prisoner brought home a grip. Do not remember with his father. Am pretty sure they were not in the hotel before he came. There were twelve bedrooms in the Royal, all numbered 1 to 12. Do not know. Have sworn that the accused stayed at the house that night. Hotel register shows that a man named Add Dalton and C. B. Bullock occupied room 7 at the Royal Hotel on that night. There are two beds in the room. Cannot remember if McCue stayed in the room that night. McCue was put down for bed 3, but cannot say if he occupied it. Z is a bed in the hall. On Saturday, April 24, 1901, Add Dalton, registered at room 7, occupied room 7 from Calgary, and occupied room 4. Prisoner behaved very well while in the hotel.

Court adjourned until Friday 10 a. m. (The trial is still in progress and will not be concluded until the latter part of next week.)

IN THE NATIONAL PARK.

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—"There are now 31 buffalo in the 'Buff National Park,'" said Superintendent Howard Douglas, who is here on business with the interior department. "The herd has doubled in three years and in five years we should have 100 head in the park." The buffalo herd is one of the prime attractions of the Banff park, but it is intended to add another important zoological feature. Eupt. Douglas is going to New York tomorrow to spend a few days at Bronx park and get posted on the best practice in housing and caging wild animals. When he returns to Banff he will begin the erection of a building for some of the small wild animals of the Northwest Territories. It will form a fine addition to the already unrivalled attractions of the Banff Park. Mr. Douglas has an interview with Mr. Sifton this afternoon.

READING ROOM.

To the Citizens of Edmonton.
The committee of the Public Reading Room, as has been previously announced has taken steps to equip in connection with the reading room, a circulating and reference library, the canvass for members has been vigorously pursued and has met a hearty response from the young men of our town. We believe that there are citizens of Edmonton who would be willing to donate suitable books for the library, and we therefore take this opportunity of inviting those who would care to contribute well bound reference books or works by standard authors, to leave their addresses at the office of either the Bulletin or the Post and the books will be called for. The committee will accept no book that is in the least sense immoral and since the library is for general use we will accept none but well bound copies.

Confident that we shall receive a generous response to this appeal. We are yours, on behalf of Com. A. M. McDONALD.

A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.

Mr. Hetu, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, left the General Hospital a few days ago. His many friends gave him a warm welcome home; and congratulated him on his prompt and perfect recovery from the very serious operation of lithotomy he underwent. This success is a great credit to Dr. Roy for his skilful ability, also to the General Hospital for the intelligent nursing to which Mr. Hetu has been admitted. Dr. Roy was assisted by Drs. Wilson, Whitelaw and Blais.

CARD OF THANKS.

Edmonton, Feb. 13th, 1902. I take this opportunity to convey publicly to the Sisters of Charity, at the General Hospital, my sincere thanks, for the unflinching care, and devotion with which they attended my husband, during his illness.

B. HETU.
